Quotes and Testimonials regarding

Tracy Gary, Unleashing Generosity and her book, "Inspired Philanthropy"

"Tracy is present, caring and attuned. We just trust her wisdom and her compassion with all our internal and external complexities. She shows up when we need her, inspires, and gives us trends, tips and tools that are invaluable."

-Joanne Reich, United Methodist, Deaconess

"We hired Tracy in February of 2023 to work with us over several days to engage more donors as partners and for our increasingly diverse development staff team training. Her reputation does not exceed her eagerness to design and respond to our team's needs and inquiries. We are so excited to have her skill and big picture donor engagement personal example, that we are having her back to continue a staff, board, and donor training on Donor Partnership, so we can grow the number of our donors and staff to feel competent about raising money and legacy gifts. What a blessing that we were ahead of the tour dates. Book her soon, as her monthly time on the road is limited. Who doesn't need this tactical support and smarts, especially given the times!" "Here's a cheer for this 50th year gift to our communities! Catch her joy."

-Chree Boydston, Chief Development Officer, & Timothy Martinez, Vice-President Major Gifts and Planned Giving Legacy Community Health, Houston

"One of my all-time favorite partners in co-creation, Tracy is the real thing: purpose, passion, persistence. Her 50 years is something to celebrate and benefit from. Her role over five decades has been crucial to fostering thriving with donors and organizations. Her perspective on donor and foundation culture is unparalleled. She cares deeply about intergenerational dialogue and invites our full engagement together to create a better world."

-Jean M. Russell, founder, and author, "Thrivable"

"Inspired Philanthropy is one of the best tools for donors, development people and advisors ever to be published. I am glad to see her back on the road."

-Phil Cubeta, Former head of CAP (Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy) of the American College and "The Mr. Rogers of Philanthropy."
